

Schwinn 570E Elliptical

The Schwinn 570E crosstrainer has no less than 29 programs, an adjustable incline up to 10 degrees, a HIIT Schwinn HIIT flywheel like gym and many additional options, it is impossible to get bored with this front driven crosstrainer .

Via Bluetooth, you easily connect to Explore the World for a host of virtual options.

SPECIFICATIONS

|                                      |                                    |
|--------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| • Number of programs                 | 29                                 |
| • Number of training levels          | 25                                 |
| • Maximum load in kg                 | 136                                |
| • Number of years warranty           | 2                                  |
| • Type of warranty fitness equipment | On site                            |
| • Regularity of use                  | Intensive                          |
| • Flywheel weight in kg              | 4.5 kg HIIT                        |
| • Stride length in cm                | 50.8                               |
| • Resistance system                  | Computer controlled magnetic brake |
| • Adjustable                         | Yes                                |
| • Collapsible                        | Yes                                |
| • Adjustable resistance              | Electric                           |
| • Material                           | Plastic                            |
| • Color                              | Gray                               |